

L I Z A M A C R A E
845 217 9948

DELIGHTS

Garry Winogrand famously stated, "I photograph to see what the world looks like photographed." I feel connected to this idea, but I would add that I also photograph to reveal what I might otherwise not have seen. My series, Sculpted Delight, began as a collection of still lifes celebrating play and joy but seem to have become riddles to contemplate. This delights me.

